ADMINISTRATIVE VACANCY

DEAN OF STUDENTS: This position will have a start date on or about December 22, 2020 ending on or about March 1, 2021. Enrollment of approximately 1,209 students, grades 6-12. The candidate selected will work with counselors to establish development plans for those students showing signs of academic struggle and will proactively evaluate the overall effectiveness of the programs developed with the counselors. Successful experience as a teacher as well as possessing the qualities needed to demonstrate the ability to work with at-risk students is essential for this desired position. The dean of students is also responsible for implementing strategies that will motivate and inspire students to succeed and stay in school. The candidate chosen will also be expected to monitor student attendance rates and ensure that they remain high. This position requires a candidate who has several years of teaching experience and must have excellent oral and written communication skills. Valid certification as a Pennsylvania teacher required. The candidate must possess a bachelor's degree; graduate degree is preferred. Send letter of interest, resume, PA Standard Application, Acts 34, 114 and 151 clearances (current to posting date), Act 168, certificate, transcripts and three recommendation letters to:
